

BYRON AND WOMEN (and men)

A ONE DAY CONFERENCE of the NEWSTEAD BYRON SOCIETY, NOTTINGHAM TRENT UNIVERSITY and the MIDLANDS ROMANTIC SEMINAR

Saturday May 2nd 2009

Registration and Coffee 10.00 am; Conference 10.15am – 5.30pm

Clifton Campus, Nottingham Trent University: Ada Byron King Building, Room 005

Papers could be on: Women in Byron's Life; Byron's Marriage; Women in Byron's Poems; Women in Byron's Plays; "Could Byron depict relationships?"; "What Happened with the Maid of Athens?"; Byron's Nottinghamshire Women; Byron's London Women; Byron and Spanish Women; Byron and Italian Women; Byron's Male Friends; Byron's Boyfriends; Byron and his Mother; Byron's Gay Subtexts; The Influence of Byron's Relationships on his Work; or similar

The conference will be preceded on May 1st by a dinner at Nottinghamshire County Hall, and an entertainment entitled "They Were Expendable, or, The Girls He Left Behind Him"

CALL FOR PAPERS: DEADLINE JANUARY 31ST 2009

Registration: £17 (speakers £12) including buffet lunch, bookable in advance from the Newstead Byron Society, c/o Ken Purslow, The Cottage, Epperstone, Notts, NG14 6AE, whitelady@white-lady.co.uk (credit card payments via secure link on www.internationalbyronsociety.org)
For further information, contact Peter Cochran at cochranpeter@hotmail.com or at 01223 570584, or Ken Purslow at 01159 664367.